The fiscal challenges facing our colleges and universities are prompting us to review and continuously improve our decision-making processes. This includes comprehensive academic planning, effective use of data, and corresponding systems and processes to evaluate academic programs and course offerings. Presenters will share their recent efforts to build capacity within their college or university with the hope that it will be timely and informative to your local planning and budgeting.

Presenters:

Brian Huschle, East Grand Forks Campus Dean, Northland Community and Technical College

Derrick Lindstrom, Dean of Arts & Humanities, Minneapolis Community and Technical College

Marilyn Wells, Provost and Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs, Minnesota State University, Mankato

Moderator:

Kristina Keller, Associate Vice President of Academic Affairs, St. Cloud Technical and Community College

UPCOMING WEBINARS:

April 21, 2016: Discipline investigations

May 19, 2016: Transfer pathways

June 16, 2016: Building an inclusive faculty culture
