

Disability Justice Workshop Series

The Disability Justice Workshop Series introduces the concept of disability justice – a framework that examines disability and ableism as it relates to other forms of oppression and identity – and contextualizes it in U.S. history and current social justice work, with the goal of fostering a more just and inclusive Minnesota State community. These five interactive sessions are centered on the leadership and advice of people with disabilities, including Minnesota State students.

Disability Justice: Why It's Everybody's Business

January 26, 2022 10:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. Register

Racial Justice and Disability Justice: Working Together to Free Our Minds and Bodies

February 23, 2022 10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. Register

New Ways to Talk about Disability

March 30, 2022 10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. Register

Experience Is Our Teacher: People with Disabilities on Allyship, Advocacy, and Pride

April 27, 2022 10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. Register

From Vision to Action: Let's Create Inclusive Classrooms, Campuses, and Communities

May 4, 2022 10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. Register

This series is aligned with the Minnesota State Equity 2030 vision and will be co-taught by people with disabilities and allies from the University of Minnesota's Institute on Community Integration. This series is made possible by the partnership of Minnesota State, Inver Hills Community College, Minneapolis College, Metropolitan State University.